VGEN0282 TAALLN401A Address language, literacy and numeracy issues in teaching and learning practice – learner guide and resource pack

This resource comprises a 76-page Learner Guide and a 14-page Resources Pack presented in a satchel and designed to be used in a variety of learning contexts.

Learner Guide includes:

- an orientation to the National Reporting System (NRS)
- activities to help trainers and assessors determine appropriate language, literacy and numeracy levels for the settings in which they work
- advice on when and how to work with specialist language, literacy and numeracy trainers.

Resources Pack includes:

- a shortened version of the NRS
- tools to help locate and determine appropriate language, literacy and numeracy in vocational settings to develop training and assessment materials.

This pack is designed for learners to take into their future practice as trainers and/or assessors.

This resource is also available from <http://www.literacynet.deewr.gov.au/>
